

Note from Allen

Add some fresh content to your site, even just a few lines about a new client or a new project, on a regular basis and, over time, this practice will increase your search engine ranking. If you're too busy to do this, contact Honeycomb for help.

Kudos to Senwi House Inspections for practicing what we consistently preach. Senwi frequently updates their website with home inspection news directed towards its primary target market, house buyers.

Website Buzz

Giving Back

We've started web development work for Mom to Mom Child Poverty Initiative Society, a charitable organization improving the lives of mothers in need in Vancouver's Downtown Eastside.

Watch for the website launch announcement to appear in our next newsletter.

Digital Publishing

Let us transform your traditional documents into ready-for-digital-distribution PDFs, enhanced PDFs, ePubs or iBooks.

Depending on the format, your digital publication can include active links within or outside the publication, video files, audio files and interactive maps. ePubs are Kindle compatible and iBooks are iPad compatible. To learn more, contact Allen.

What's New

We're excited to let you know that we've been working on developing iPhone Apps. If you would like an iPhone app developed, contact Allen.
